THE FOREIGN MARKET. The latest London advices indicate a dull market for foreign securities; £40,000 bullion went into the Bank of England to-day on balance. Rentes at Paris were weak at 59.75. The London quotations are as follows:—Consols for money, 03% a 93%; do. for account, 93% a 93%; five-twenty forty bonds, 104½ a 104½; new fives, 104½ a 104½; Erie, 32½ a 32½. Prices in Amsterdam are quoted at the following rates :- Central Pacific first mortgage bonds, 76%; Union Pacific do. do., 71; Union Pacific stock, 24%; Northwestern preferred, 50%;

St. Paul do., 45; Erie, 30%.
BANK SHARES. In bank shares business was dull. German American sold at 90, and American Exchange at 112. The remainder of the list may be quoted at

THE STOCK MARKET opened with a renewal of the same generalship which has been its chief feature for the past few days, and prices promptly recovered from the to about its highest figures; but it soon become apparent that "manipulation" had nearly run its length and that natural causes were about to resume their rightful authority. The net result of the recent manipulation may be seen in the following table of prices, together with the fact that a large short interest has been driven over to the bull side, leaving the market more open to attacks from agverse natural causes than it has been for a long time:-

onsiderable fluctuations, which toward the close of the day fairly developed in a condition of weakness and distrust. Those who have been bulling the market lost heart, and per contra those who have looked for lower prices gained courage from the exhibition of a want of staying power on what is popularly supposed to be the strong side. While the offices of brokers continue vacant and iew purchasers put in an appearance whenever market shows signs of recovery, gloom must be only a natural result. Cheerfulness in Wall street is at a discount. The principal dealings were in Western Union, Pacific Mail, Wabash, St. Paul, Lake Shore and Northwest. The total sales for the day were 144,369 shares. Of these there were sold Western Union, 47,400 shares; Union Pacific, 24,000; Lake Shore, 17,500; Wabash, 15.490; Pacific Mail, 10,700; Northwest common, 5,400; Central, 4,900; St. Paul, 4,000; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 4,100; Rock Island, 2,200; Ohio and Mississippi, 1,800; Atlantic and Pacific preferred, 1,400; Erie, 880; Pacific of Mis-
